Our Life of Faith in the Church’s Teaching

“And do not seek what you are to eat and what you are to drink, nor be worried. For all the nations of the world seek after these things, and your Father knows that you need them. Instead, seek his kingdom, and these things will be added to you. (Luke 12:29-31 ESV)

“Therefore, we must strengthen ourselves against unbelief and let the kingdom of God be the first thing for which we pray. Then, surely, we shall have all the other things in abundance, as Christ teaches, ‘Strive first for the kingdom of God and his righteousness and all these things will be given to you as well.’ (Matt. 6:33; Luke 12:31) For how could God allow us to suffer want in temporal things while promising eternal and imperishable things?” (Large Catechism—The Second Petition of the Lord’s Prayer, Book of Concord, ed. Kolb and Wengert. Minneapolis, MN: Augsburg Fortress, 2000. 448 n 173.)

Winter Boutique 2022: The 2022 Winter Boutique will take place on November 12th in Zion Lutheran Gym. All proceeds will go to the church and gym. Anyone wishing to be a vendor can pick up an application in the narthex. Applications can be directed to Courtney Leth. If you have any questions, you can call her at (308) 380-4668.

Flowers: The flowers on the altar are given by Harold and Marilyn Luebke in thankfulness and praise to God for their wonderful family and friends.

Lutheran Talk and Music App: You can listen to Lutheran talk and music 24/7, anytime, anywhere with the free Lutheran Public Radio app. You can download for your cell phone at the App Store, Google Play or at issuesetc.org.

Sanctity of Human Life: ““God’s Son began His life weak and helpless, laid in a feeding trough. He began His ministry weak and tempted, vulnerable in the desert. In a weakened state from the scourging, Jesus died on the cross, making you right with God, filling you with His strength. And when God supplies your strength, you are strong, indeed.” Marie MacPherson, author – A Life Quote from Lutherans For Life ● lutheransforlife.org
